

Guidelines

Annual Deadline: June 15

Overview

Arts Nova Scotia and the Creative Nova Scotia Leadership Council recognize that artistic and cultural expression are fundamental to the collective well-being of Nova Scotians. Programs that encourage artistic and cultural development help to build creative communities that foster innovation, generate social change, and nurture cultural diversity. The Creative Community Impact Award recognizes an organization or program that has made a positive impact on a community through arts and culture. Funded from the Nova Scotia Arts Endowment Fund, the award carries a cash value of $10,000.

Purpose

The purpose of the Creative Community Impact Award is to promote arts and culture in Nova Scotian communities by recognizing excellence and initiative in bringing arts and culture into community life.

The award recognizes a demonstrated history of community engagement with art and culture by an organization or program. It also provides a financial investment intended to enhance future arts and culture activities and to encourage further engagement.

Eligibility Criteria

Applicants:

- must be a Nova Scotia-based non-profit arts and culture organization or an arts and culture program within a non-profit organization that has been operating for four years or more; a municipality; or a Nova Scotian Mi'kmaq Band Council.
- must have proven a history of community engagement with arts and culture
- may only receive this award once
- may nominate themselves

Application Process

The following must be included in all nominations:

- A completed application form.
