

Mi'kmaq Arts Program Self Identification SAMPLE Form

The Mi'kmaq Arts Program supports the development and continuation of Mi'kmaq art forms, traditional and contemporary, in the province of Nova Scotia by providing opportunities for Mi'kmaq artists to create and share their art and by acknowledging that Mi'kmaq art forms can encompass all practices.

Arts Nova Scotia is committed to diversity, accessibility and inclusion when providing programs and services to all Nova Scotians.

The information in this form will be used to identify eligible applicants to the Mi'kmaq Arts Program. This information will be given to the peer assessment committee.

NOTE: This is a sample of the Self Identification form and cannot be accepted as part of an application. See the Mi'kmaq Arts Program page for a link to the online Self Identification form.
