Privacy Notice

Personal information and forms provided, or all other supporting documents required for your application are collected by Arts Nova Scotia under the authority of the Nova Scotia's FOIPOP Act.

The information you provide will be used or disclosed to identify the applicant(s), the pronoun to use, and some background information about the applicant and their project, process your application for the grant application, determine your eligibility, process and approve grants, payment of approved grants to the beneficiary, contact you when required, and administer the program as required by the program's mandate.

We also collect your responses to some questions, which you voluntarily provide for program administration and understanding our applicants' diversity and accessibility requirements.

If you Opt-In for our mailing list as part of your application, we will use your email address to send you information about our programs until you unsubscribe at any time.

We may only use or disclose your personal information for another purpose if we are authorized by law to do so, or if we obtain your consent. The name of the beneficiary and the amount of grant received in any fiscal year will be published for the public.

By submitting your personal information or making any other request to us (by contacting us via any of our official channels), you acknowledge that you understand the collection, use, and disclosure of any personal information you provide to us for the purpose of your application and program administration.

To read more about how government respects your privacy when interacting with us review our full privacy statement. For questions about how your personal information is handled by the program, you may contact the responsible program officer listed on the program page.
