

Grants to Individuals Final Report Form (2026)

Please read all instructions before completing this form.

The form should take approximately 20-30 minutes to complete.

The information you share will not affect your eligibility for future Arts Nova Scotia funding or applications.

Before you begin, type and save your answers in a separate document for your records. You will not be able to edit your report after you submit it.

Many questions are optional, but we encourage you to answer as many as possible. All questions marked with a red asterisk (*) are required.

Why do we ask for final reports?

- To confirm that you used your grant as intended and help us understand whether our programs are achieving their intended outcomes and how we can improve them.
- To help us learn about the broader impact of arts funding in Nova Scotia.

The information and stories you share will help us understand and communicate the importance of supporting the arts. With your consent, we may also share your stories through our social media, annual report, or other communications.
